2009 Ohio AMBER Alert Conference Friday, January 30, 2009

The Ohio AMBER Alert Steering Committee is pleased to announce the 2009 Ohio AMBER Alert Conference. The goal of this all-day conference is to improve the efficiency and effectiveness of our ability to save the lives of missing children and adults through our collective and coordinated preparedness efforts. The target audience for the conference is the team members of the regional and local AMBER plans in Ohio, CART Team Leaders and all Ohio law enforcement agencies.

The conference will be held Friday, January 30, 2009 from 9:00 AM to 3:00 PM at the Ohio Department of Transportation (ODOT) Headquarters in the Auditorium located at 1980 W. Broad Street, Lower Level, Columbus, Ohio 43223. There is no cost to attend the conference. Parking is available on both the ODOT and ODPS lots. Those parking on the ODPS lot may use the ODPS tunnel to get to the ODOT Auditorium. The conference agenda is located on the reverse side of this invitation.

Please return the attached registration form by January 9, 2009. Space is limited for this conference and is available on a first come, first served basis. Overnight accommodations are at the expense of the attendee. For local hotel information or any other conference questions feel free to contact Venica Miller at (614) 644-1234 or vmiller@ag.state.oh.us.

We look forward to your participation in this important conference and thank you for your continued support of our efforts to prevent, detect and combat those who seek to abduct and exploit children and vulnerable adults.

Sincerely,

The AMBER Alert Steering Committee
