2010 Ohio AMBER Alert Conference Tuesday, April 20, 2010

The Ohio AMBER Alert Steering Committee is pleased to announce the 2010 Ohio AMBER Alert Conference. The goal of this all-day conference is to improve the efficiency and effectiveness of our ability to save the lives of missing children and adults through our collective and coordinated preparedness efforts. The target audience for the conference is the team members of the regional and local AMBER plans in Ohio, CART Team Leaders, Ohio law enforcement agencies, Public Information Officers, Officers working closely with media, and the Media (TV, radio, print and online).

The conference is scheduled for Tuesday, April 20, 2010 from 8:00 AM to 4:00 PM at the Columbus Police Academy Auditorium located at 1000 North Hague Avenue, Columbus, OH 43204-2121. There is no cost to attend the conference and parking is available. The conference agenda is located on the reverse side of this invitation.

Please return the attached registration form by April 1, 2010 to Carolyn Bevins at Carolyn.bevins@ohioattorneygeneral.gov, or fax 1-866-639-7608. Space is limited for this conference and is available on a first come, first served basis. Overnight accommodations are at the expense of the attendee. For local hotel information or any other conference questions, feel free to contact Vicki Germann at (614) 466-1711 or Vicki.germann@ohioattorneygeneral.gov

We look forward to your participation in this important conference and thank you for your continued support of our efforts to prevent, detect and combat those who seek to abduct and exploit children and vulnerable adults.

Sincerely,

The AMBER Alert Steering Committee
