

OHIO'S 2017 5th GRADE POSTER CONTEST WINNER

Mya Wehrkamp, Coldwater Middle School, Coldwater, OH

Mya Wehrkamp from Coldwater Middle School, Coldwater, Ohio is Ohio's 2017 National Missing Children's Day Poster Contest winner. When asked about her poster and why she created it, she said: "In my poster there are two sides. The first side is the girl. She is missing and lonely and wants to get back to her family, friends and the people she loves. On the other side you have the world around her. How gloomy and sad it is reflects on how everything she had is now gone. The girl is thinking of all the nice things and is praying to stay positive and get home."

OHIO'S 2017 5th GRADE POSTER CONTEST WINNER 2ND PLACE

Sophia Rush, St. Nicholas Academy, Cincinnati, OH

Sophia Rush from St. Nicholas Academy in Cincinnati, Ohio is our 2nd place winner of the 2017 National Missing Children's Day Poster Contest. When asked about her poster, she said: "I made this poster because I think it is so important that kids should not go missing as much as they do. The puzzle pieces symbolize the children in the U.S.A. The red pieces represent the children who are missing. The white pieces represent the children who are safe at home."

OHIO'S 2017 5th GRADE POSTER CONTEST WINNER 3RD PLACE

Ibraheem Ahmad, Dayton Islamic School, Beavercreek, OH

Ibraheem Ahmad from Dayton Islamic School in Beavercreek, Ohio is the 3rd place winner of the 2017 National Missing Children's Day Poster Contest. When asked about his poster he said: "My poster is about a girl and her mother reuniting. I made it because I want to increase awareness. This is really serious and I want to put a stop to it! This is not good, but we can stop it only if we believe."
